

“I listen to patients and explain their condition to them so they will know to take care of their issues and get better faster with no complications.”

About Nacera Belheir Bush, DPM

In high school, Dr. Nacera Bush knew that she was going to be a doctor. As an experienced podiatrist, she provides comprehensive foot care to help her patients stay mobile and independent. “I listen to patients and explain their condition to them so they will know to take care of their issues and get better faster with no complications,” says Dr. Bush. “I’m very interested in their well-being and ready to spend the time it takes to educate them and answer their questions.”
