

Alexandria Beranger, MD

National Director, Quality and Patient Experience

“I’m dedicated to providing quality patient care and education that empowers seniors to take charge of their health. ”

About Alexandria Beranger, MD

Dr. Alexandria Beranger knows that when patients feel supported by their doctor, they can benefit from a better care experience.

“I’m dedicated to providing quality patient care and education that empowers seniors to take charge of their health. Healthcare issues, especially for Seniors, can be complicated,” she says. “They deserve doctors who listen, not lecture, and who make time to know them on a deeper level. It builds the trust that’s so important in the doctor-patient relationship.”
