About Fritz Gaetan Heyliger, MD

Whether caring for his grandmother or volunteering at a primary care clinic, Dr. Fritz Gaetan Heyliger has always loved helping people smile. “We were able to make a real change for the better in a person’s life,” he says. Dr. Heyliger says his favorite part of his profession is “the opportunity to educate my patients and to empower them.” He emphasizes the importance of preventative care and views himself as a part of a team with his patients. “I’m here to serve and not give orders,” he explains. Dr. Heyliger feels honored to have his patients’ trust.

In his free time, Dr. Heyliger loves spending time with family. He also loves swimming in open water, participating in CrossFit, and reading motivational books.
