

“I like to take a holistic approach and be an advocate for health. My goal is to understand what a patient’s needs are and face hurdles together.”

About Niral Patel, DO

Dr. Niral Patel has always wanted to pursue a career in healthcare and says his love for medicine and helping seniors work “hand-in-hand.” He enjoys seeing patients smile at the results of their efforts for better health. “I like to take a holistic approach and be an advocate for health,” Dr. Patel says. He enjoys establishing a close bond with patients through frequent visits. “My goal is to understand what a patient’s needs are and face hurdles together,” he says. Dr. Patel works to “find the right, individual approach” for each patient.

In his free time, Dr. Patel loves staying active with various sports and activities like frisbee, tennis, ziplining, and skydiving. He also enjoys spending time with his family.
