About Lucas Rabeno Fasolo, MD

Dr. Lucas Rabeno Fasolo loves making a difference in people’s lives as a physician. “It is much more than a profession; when done properly, it is your vocation, passion, and mission, and it becomes your reason of being,” he says. Dr. Fasolo enjoys getting to know his patients beyond their health concerns and wants them to know he is there to treat them, not their diseases. “Human beings are so diverse that our care must also be individualized,” he explains. Dr. Fasolo finds it “extremely rewarding” to care for the senior population.

In his free time, Dr. Fasolo loves spending time with his wife and dog. They enjoy watching documentaries and traveling. Dr. Fasolo is new to South Florida and is excited to learn more about the area.
