

“I like when we agree on a plan of care, and I enjoy seeing their happiness and satisfaction after clinical improvement.”

About Jorge Perez, MD

Dr. Jorge Perez grew up in Cuba near a medical center, which led to his desire to work in healthcare. “I am coming from a humble origin, blessed with the opportunity of becoming a physician and a cardiologist,” he says. His favorite part of his profession is creating relationships with patients through love and compassion. “I like when we agree on a plan of care, and I enjoy seeing their happiness and satisfaction after clinical improvement,” he says. He feels great respect and admiration for his senior patients. “I believe they deserve to be happy, healthy, and at home surrounded by the love of their families,” he says.

When Dr. Perez is not caring for patients, he can be found enjoying time with his family.
