“From a very young age, it was clear that medicine was the route in which I could utilize my interests and strengths to best help my community.”

About Sara Hartey, DO

Dr. Sara Hartey says it is “a great honor” to care for patients. “From a very young age, it was clear that medicine was the route in which I could utilize my interests and strengths to best help my community,” she explains. Dr. Hartey is passionate about improving the quality of life of her patients. In her practice, she emphasizes the importance of prioritizing preventative care and mental health. She wants patients to know they can depend on her and explains that she forms relationships “by demonstrating consistency, compassion, and quality care.”

When not with patients, Dr. Hartey can be found spending time with family or enjoying the outdoors. She especially loves swimming, camping, and visiting remote places around the world.
