“I strive to help older adults take back control of their healthcare choices and maintain their independence.”

About Taleb El-Masri, DO

Dr. Taleb El-Masri is a strong believer in holistic care and preventative medicine. “My passion for healthcare stems from caring for others in their time of need coupled with my love for science and the human body,” he says. His favorite part of his profession is “building meaningful relationships with patients.” He adds, “I strive to help older adults take back control of their healthcare choices and maintain their independence.” He loves advocating for patients and their needs. “Patients need to be confident that their doctor is there for them no matter what,” he says.

When not with patients, Dr. El-Masri loves spending time with family and friends. He also likes playing soccer and is a huge hockey fan.
