“It's a privilege to be able to serve as a guide for my patients, helping them navigate through challenging health situations and be that helping hand in time of need.”

About Diego Rodriguez, MD

Dr. Diego Rodriguez was inspired by stories of his great grandfather, who served as a physician in the Spanish Civil War, to pursue a career in medicine. “It’s a privilege to be able to serve as a guide for my patients, helping them navigate through challenging health situations and be that helping hand in time of need,” he says. He fi rst became drawn to the senior population while caring for his grandparents. He values genuine connections, explaining, “We are so much more similar than we are diff erent.” He vows to treat patients “in a holistic way that optimizes their health.”

In his free time, Dr. Rodriguez likes playing guitar, enjoying nature, and spending time with family. He also enjoys playing a variety of sports.
