About Daniela Botoman, MD

Originally from Romania, Dr. Daniela Botoman, known familiarly as “Dr. B,” has “always loved to take care of people.” She explains, “I was surrounded all my life with Senior relatives, and I come from a culture where we live multiple generations in same house/town and take care of our elderly.” She strives to make herself available to patients and likes “taking the time to understand their worries and questions.” She loves encouraging patients and “praising them for their success.” She is committed to helping patients “have more pleasant, joyful, good days with their loved ones.”

When not at work, Dr. B can be found caring for her two 90-year-old parents. She also enjoys cooking and traveling.
