

Understanding the Value of Your Chen Doctor

Keeping the right doctor is the key to taking advantage of your benefits.

As we enter the Annual Enrollment Period (AEP), it's important to remember why staying with your trusted Chen primary care provider (PCP)* is crucial—keeping the same doctor helps them understand your unique health needs and provide effective treatment to keep you healthy.

If you're considering a new insurance plan this AEP season, talk to us first! Our Care Teams at Chen will help you navigate any changes and make sure you continue getting the healthcare you deserve with the doctors you deserve. Your health plan agent, broker, or representative will walk you through any benefit changes. As you review plan options, we want to make sure you remember to consider if we are on the plan's network so you can stay with your doctor. If you make a plan change, we hope you will stay with us and let us know so that we can add your new insurance information. This will help ensure there are no delays in care when your new insurance plan begins.

*Note: Most PCPs are doctors, but nurse practitioners can sometimes also be PCPs.

8 reasons your Chen doctor is the right one for you

We have experience with older adults

Our doctors understand the changes and challenges that come with aging, adjusting their approach to meet your specific needs.

We take the time to focus on you

Your health matters, and so does your time. Our doctors aren't rushed—they take the time to listen to you, understand your concerns, and answer all your questions.

You have easy access to your doctor

As our patient, we make sure you can reach us whenever you have an urgent concern.

We work alongside your other providers

Our Care Teams work closely with your other healthcare providers to coordinate care, making sure nothing falls through the cracks when it comes to your health.

We practice true preventive care

Our doctors typically see their patients at least once a month. Your doctor is always there to listen and take care of your needs. Plus, our Care Teams will coordinate with your specialists to ensure a seamless healthcare experience.

Our focus is on whole-person care

Staying healthy as you age is about more than just medication. We offer support with diet, exercise, and mental well-being, helping you maintain a balanced, healthy lifestyle.

We see you often to keep you feeling your healthiest

At Chen, our doctors are committed to keeping you healthy. They focus on preventive care, seeing you more frequently to catch potential issues early before they become serious. This consistent care helps maintain your health over time.

Our patient satisfaction rate doesn't lie

Based on a recent survey, 93.7% of patients reported being highly satisfied with the care they received from their doctor.*

Staying with your doctor matters.

Sticking with your Chen doctor is vital for your long-term health. Your current doctor has taken the time to build your trust and develop a deep understanding of your health history and needs. This helps make your treatment work better and fit your needs, so you can stay healthier for longer.

Thinking about changing your plan?

Changes to your insurance plan during AEP could mean you might have to switch doctors. If you are thinking about making changes to your plan but want to keep seeing your Chen doctor, we can help make sure you continue to receive the high-quality care you deserve.

As our patient, you receive:

Transportation coordination

Need help coordinating transportation to and from your doctor's appointments? We're here for you.

In-house labs and tests

Our convenient, in-house lab services save you time and hassle.

Same-day and walk-in appointments

Have an urgent need? We'll see you right away during regular business hours.
